

Let's Play

English language based playgroup

Is English your mother tongue?

Would you like to meet other families whose mother tongue is also English?

Would you like to enhance your children's English language development, and encourage their interests in their native countries?

Then you have found the right place to come!

Mothers, fathers, and children may come together to sing, enjoy imaginative play, exchange tips and opinions on English literature for children and adults on a weekly basis.

Children of all ages are welcome.

The course will be free of charge.
